11. The CTCB takes great care to ensure that examinations are conducted in a fair and legitimate manner. The Examination Board will advise unsuccessful candidates, at their discretion , why they have failed to meet the expected examination requirements. There is also an appeals procedure whose decision is final. Details of examination decisions are confidential and remain privileged information restricted to the Examination Board. All candidates registering for this course are deemed to have understood and accepted these conditions. Students by signing this form are also deemed to have accepted that they will be attentive, studious during all teaching periods and to study efficiently. The candidate's photograph will be taken at the start of the course. This will be used during the course to prevent impersonation and to aid the examiners. On certification, the successful candidate's name will be placed on the CTCB-I website to provide evidence that the person testing their cleanroom is CTCB-I certified. By signing this form, the candidate agrees to this.
